

Some Irish Mateer Cousins

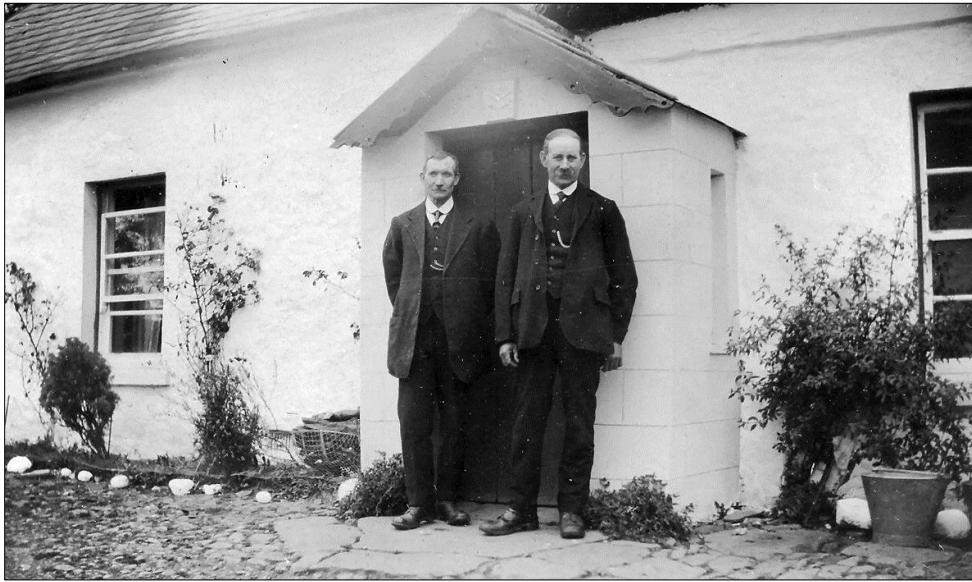

Most captions believed to be written by Maggie Mateer McKee. Her brothers are John & Joseph Mateer. Maggie's daughter is Annie, married to Albert Campbell.

Robert

The captions are reversed, so that from left, standing in top row, are Robert, Madge, Jim, and Sadie. The mother is unidentified; next to her are Samuel and John; father unidentified, and Jean. Doreen, and Fred are in the bottom row, standing. The mother's name is Mary McKee Lawther, daughter of Maggie Mateer & James McKee. The Lawther father's first name is probably James.

This is the Loughaghery Presyterian Church near Annahilt, Ballycrune, Co. Down Ireland. Its graveyard is the burial place of several Mateer families. A short history of the church is here: <http://www.lisburn.com/churches/Lisburn-churches/loughaghery-presbyterian-church.html>
The church's current website and picture is here: <http://www.loughagherychurch.org/>
(The picture has been enhanced and repaired digitally. It has the date 1895 on the pediment.)

The postcard below was sent by Maggie Mateer McKee to the Westfield Mateers in 1928.
